PRO STOCK HARD CHARGER award was being presented to #38, Rick Crow, on July 25th for his efforts on July 18th. Joe Benson and his wife Jan were honorary trophy presenters that evening. It seems as though Rick and Joe couldn't resist some "clowning around" during the presentation. The fans loved it!

HOOPER TAKES THIRD NASCAR SPORTSMAN WIN

Defending NASCAR sportsman division champion Lance Hooper became the first three time winner

The field for the 40-lap NASCAR sportsman feature started with fast qualifier Hooper on the pole. At the start, Hooper pulled out to the lead with Ken Sapper in second. Working lap nine, Sapper's engine let go going into turn three causing him and the four cars running third through sixth to slide into the turn three wall bringing out a red flag. Sapper, Pat Mintey, Jr. and Doug Renno were out for the night, but Gary Sigman and Sean Woodside were able to continue at the rear with minimal damage. Craig Rayburn took over second, but never would be able to challenge Hooper. Hooper ran out front for the remainder for the win with Rayburn second, John Watkinson third, Lee Ladd fourth and Rodney Peacher in fifth.
